

BOOGIE WONDERLAND

From 16 October
 Kristin Hjellegjerde Gallery

With a cheery colour palette not too dissimilar from Frida Kahlo's, Soheila Sokhanvari uses saturated tones to elevate the everyday and investigate the concepts of magical realism and nostalgia. Capitalising off of the bright hues' inherent optimism, she uses them to address complex political issues, with her primary focus being pre-revolution Iran.

Old York Road, SW18;
kristinhjellegjerde.com

ARTISTS' OPEN HOUSE

3-4 & 10-11 October

Throughout South West London

Go behind the canvas into the artist's studio with this amazing opportunity to sneak a peek at the creative talent in your neighbourhood. Meet over 100 makers and purchase their original work in a fun, relaxed environment.

◆ wandsworthart.com

STARGAZING

14 October

London Wetland Centre

Wrap up warm and head out into the moonlight to enjoy this beginners' guide to the galaxy and beyond. Expand your horizons and discover all there is to know about our solar system by wandering around the centre, listening to their experts talk about the night sky.

◆ Queen Elizabeth's Walk, SW13; wvt.org.uk

SPOOKY SCIENCE

27 October

Eddie Catz Putney

Celebrate Halloween in style with the Little House of Science. Little ones can explore the world of creepy spiders, the anatomy of glowing skulls and skeletons, and get involved in many more slime-filled activities. Ghoul-friendly lunchtime fun.

◆ Putney High Street, SW15; eddiecatz.com